

Tyler Hogan

Tyler Hogan is a Nike Sales Rep and the Co-Chair of Nike's Native American & Friends Network (NAN). NAN's Mission is to unleash the potential of Nike's Native American employees, and believes in the inspirational power of sport to break down barriers, overcome differences and bring communities together.

During his five-year tenure at Nike Tyler has worked in Product Design, Legal and Sales. Prior to joining Nike Tyler attended Oregon State University where he studied Political Science, assisted in building and managing the OSU Native American Longhouse "Eena Haws" and was elected to the United States Student Association Board of Directors as the First People's Chair.

Tyler currently serves as the VP of the 'Youth Movement' 501c3 Board of Directors.
