

Meredith Parsley

Meredith Parsley is a Senior Business Planning Analyst on the Communications side of the Business Planning department at Newmont Mining Corporation. Her current role entails creating leadership and Board communications, overseeing change management efforts, developing and facilitating trainings and leading the team building, inclusion and diversity efforts for her team.

Prior to Newmont, Meredith was a therapist who specialized in both group and individual therapy in a variety of settings. Meredith is able to apply her previous experiences in mental health to her current role as Co-chair of the NewYou Business Resource Group, which focuses on overall employee health and wellness including mind, body and spirit.

Meredith is also the Communications Lead for the S.E.R.V.E. (Socially Environmentally Responsible Volunteer Employees) Committee at Newmont.

2018 Summit Sponsors

