

David Thornton

David Thornton is a General Manager with Newmont Mining – Carlin Underground.

He joined Newmont in May 2016 from Gold Fields Limited in their Australian region. He brings more than seventeen years of mining sector experience both in surface and underground operations however predominantly underground. He spent the past 11 years with Barrick/Gold Fields (Gold Fields acquired Barrick assets), where he held a variety of engineering and leadership roles.

He holds a Bachelor's degree in Mining Engineering from the Curtin University Western Australian School of Mines, as well as a Diploma in Front Line Management.

2018 Summit Sponsors

