Manages services, strategies and operations for programs aimed at enhancing the quality of student life for those from disadvantaged backgrounds. Oversees the planning, communication, evaluation and implementation of activities and events (e.g., college preparation, health advocacy). Supports short- and long-range planning, policy formation, and decision making for the division/department. Sets goals for assigned program and measures performance against objectives.
Recruits, hires, trains and manages program staff. Schedules and assigns work, assessing performance and providing feedback. Counsels or disciplines, as needed. Identifies and recommends opportunities for staff training, professional growth, and development. Oversees the delivery of program-based training (e.g., risk management) and assesses effectiveness, modifying as appropriate.
Coordinates programming aimed at enhancing student life on university campuses and in surrounding communities with university partners and relevant stakeholders. Develops internal/external public relations initiatives to promote community programs and services (e.g., campus tours). Establishes and maintains ongoing communications to ensure integrated efforts.
Provides policy interpretation (e.g., disciplinary procedures) and reviews and decides exception requests as deemed appropriate. Resolves complex issues referred by others and provides technical guidance, as required. Maintains professional currency through active participation and leadership in internal/external associations and committees.
Develops and administers program budgets. Determines fiscal priorities and plans and approves expenditures accordingly. Develops projections for use in future budget planning (e.g., catering). Researches and identifies external funding sources and develops proposals. Interacts with donors, agencies or funding source representatives to exchange information and provide operating and status reports as needed.
Promotes an environment that fosters inclusive relationships and creates unbiased opportunities for contributions through ideas, words, and actions that uphold principles of the USC Code of Ethics.

Other Requirements

Essential:	Emergency Response/Recovery	Essential:	Mandated Reporter
	In the event of an emergency, the employee holding this position is required to “report to duty” in accordance with the university’s Emergency Operations Plan and/or the employee’s department’s emergency response and/or recovery plans. Familiarity with those plans and regular training to implement those plans is required. During or immediately following an emergency, the employee will be notified to assist in the emergency response efforts, and mobilize other staff members if needed.		A mandated reporter who in his or her professional capacity has knowledge of, or reasonably suspects a person who is under the age of 18 years, elderly, or a dependent adult has been the victim of abuse or neglect must report the suspected incident. The reporter must contact a designated agency immediately or as soon as practically possible by telephone or in writing within 36 hours. By virtue of the associated job duties, this position qualifies as a mandated reporter as required by state law and USC’s policy at: https://policy.usc.edu/mandated-reporters/
